THE HORIZON

"Christmas Eve Day Meeting"

This issue will be a "mini-me" of our regular Horizon due to the Holiday Season.

Merry Christmas to one and all

Our meeting today was not well attended but those 9 members and two guests (Pamela (daughter) and Gordon Elliott) had a wonderful time. Especially when we went through the buffet line three times each.

Past President Bob led us in a wonderful rendition of our national anthem while President Gary led us in Rotary grace.

Congratulations to Christine for winning last week's HUGE 50/50 Draw of $458.00. She will be issued her cheque when our Treasurer returns from Hawaii. Today's lucky winner, of a potential $10.00, was our guest Pamela Elliot. Too bad but with so many white marbles what did we expect? So she was able to select a wonderful prize from Billy's Bag of Treasures but the bag has been stolen for the second and last time. Too bad – that had been fun – while it lasted.

Keith announced that MOSAIC Youth Talent Showcase was planned for Friday, February 15, 2008 and he will confirm that date soon. Keith is also planning a "LOBSTER FEST" in 2008. More details to follow on that wonderful event for our members.

NEXT MEETING: December 31st
Election of Officers and Directors
We need a "quorum" and ask ALL members to please attend if possible.

A series of really "bad" jokes were told but Bill M's was particularly timely as he read us "The Night Before Christmas" by a Politically Correct Santa.

Sgt. At Arms Bob really did PASS THE BUCK as it was Christmas by fining each member a Loonie who was then to pass on the Loonie to the next Rotarian until everyone had been fined. Angela got to keep the buck for Bob's wonderful Harley HairNet.

Everyone had the opportunity for FREE Happy/Sad Dollars. No Birthdays or Anniversaries that we were made aware off.

Bill M will be with the Bingo Boyz this week.

Members attending this meeting were:

Pres. Gary, PP Bob, PPP Bill, Angela, Keith, Judy, Doug, Russ and Pres. Elect Bill.
